

The Sankt Augustinians exchange forum

Our neighbourhood is diverse: Some have always lived here, others have moved here. Some live now in Sankt Augustin, because they had to flee from their homes.

We would like to meet people and make it possible for you to meet people too and create a diverse city.

"We" are the volunteers in refugees aid center and the department for integration and social planning in the city of sankt augustin.

New neighbours from all over the world

We are Arab, African, Christian, Iranian, Muslim, Afghan, Yazidis, Drusen, Bahai...
We believe in: humanity, helpfulness, tolerance, decency, friendship, God, Allah

We look for accommodations, work, supporters, friends, a new home for us, our families, men, women, children, without fear, without arbitrariness, without oppression...

We offer: our ability, our diligence, our strength, our will, our courage, our joy...

Because we would like to work with you, celebrate with you, be happy with you, mourn with you, give you from us, take nothing from you, understand you better and that you understand us better.
